NOTE: Common Council Vote: If a Common Council member presents a motion and there is a second for a vote, there will be a discussion period for council members. A public comment period will follow council discussion and may only be on the matter up for a vote. Each member of the public will have 3 minutes to comment. After public comment the council may decide to enter into executive session, on that matter presented for a vote only or vote on the motion. If the council enters into executive session, upon returning may choose to vote or have the motion revised or rescinded.

PUBLIC NOTE: Should a member of the public have a concern that they want addressed by the council other than what is motioned at a council meeting, they should either contact (preferably in writing) their council representative and/or the mayor or attend the appropriate committee meeting and speak about their concern(s) during the committee meetings public comment.
