Public Hearing – Local law #1 of 2019 – Peddler's permits

The Mayor explained that due to time constraints this local law will not be filed until 2019 thus the 2019 effective date.

Mrs. Randazzo read the Local Law change which would permit peddling throughout the year rather than limited to April to October. Mr. Santini questioned why it was limited previously. Mrs. Waizenegger indicated that previously it was food trucks which are hard for the DPW to accommodate in winter months. Mrs. Randazzo informed the Council that a change is sought as now the tide has changed and it is primarily door-to-door sales for solar products and they want year round sales.

Motion made by Lisa Randazzo, seconded by George Belcher to close the public hearing for Local Law #1.

Motion by Mr. Seigel, seconded by Mr. Belcher as follows:

This is to request that following By-Law changes be made:

Create the position of Captain for the Special Operations Squad, appointed by the Fire Chief. The Captain will oversee the operations of the Special Operations Squad.

A secondary part of the request is to retitle the positions of Team Leader and Assistant Team Leader to First Lieutenant and Second Lieutenant respectively, each being appointed by the fire chief. This would align those positions with common fire service titles and would affect the Accident Victim Extrication Team, the Technical Rescue Rope Team and the Water Operations Team.

The applicable sections include Article IX (specifically Sections F, G and H) and Article XII (specifically Sections E, F and G). These changes will affect the language, at minimum, on the following pages: 3, 10, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 36, 37, 39, 40, 46, 50, 51, 59, 60, 63, 73, 74, 75, 78, 109 and 113.

The captain would be the only voting members representing the Squad at Board of Officer meetings and their will have no alternate.

AYE: 8 ABSENT: 1(Bavoso) NAY: 0 ABSTAIN: 0 CARRIED

Port Jervis Housing will meet next on 1/29.

The Fire and Emergency meeting scheduled for tonight was cancelled. The next meeting will be held on 1/21.

He expressed his delight at the GrinchMas and Whoville event with special thanks to Maria Mann for her involvement.

December 17, 2018

Mr. Seigel expressed get well wishes to Henry & Cheryl Holley.

He thanked Access 23 for their continuing broadcast of the meetings.

Mr. Seigel expressed Happy Holidays to all.

Mr. Bavoso- Absent

For the Good of the City- No public comment

Mayor Decker-

Mayor Decker appointed Teresa Spradling to the Upper Scenic Delaware Byway Commission as representative for Port Jervis.

The Mayor re-appointed Erica Ropke-Polanis and Debbie Cunningham to the recreation commission with terms to expire on January 1 2025.

The Mayor mentioned the kind acts of our DPW Workers who assisted the injured citizen above and beyond the scope of their job duties.

The Mayor mentioned renovations of the house at 6 Kingston which is a historical site and cited Steven Duryea and the DPW crews that went above and beyond on the sewer installation which was difficult due to the age of the connections.

Santa is coming to town on December 22nd to be escorted by the police and fire personnel to all of the fire stations and downtown.

The Mayor noted that the City was highlighted in Dirt magazine, a bike racing periodical, which highlights our trails and bike races.

The Mayor noted that the White Water Kayak Park permitting may appear as withdrawn due to a technicality in the Army Corps of engineer system that is causing a delay but the project is still moving forward and the permit will be re-opened shortly.

Commuters should be advised that there is a regional transit study being conducted in our area and that they can provide input at www.connectmidhudson.com.

The Mayor also indicated that there are already cost increases impacting us after the budget was completed by Orange County for recycling at $104 per ton which is an increase to us annually of approximately $28,000. This as compared to Sullivan County who is charged $60 per ton. He expressed his anxiety at the lack of due diligence on the part of the County.

He wished everyone Happy Holidays and is looking forward to a much brighter 2019 and beyond.
